DO YOU KNOW HOW AWESOME WE ARE?

With professional producers, directors, choreographers, designers, and musicians, our stage productions give community performers a unique opportunity for joy and growth. Our manageable rehearsal and production schedules also ensure professionals, students, and seniors have the time to participate.

In our well-loved-but-tiny home, it's impossible for ticket sales to pay for our shows and programs. Your support is critical in making it possible for us to continue doing good work in this community. We confidently promise to use your support where you can see it in action, and to get the most out of every penny.

Along with our classes and musicals, we also produce special events featuring local artists: Buck Naked and the Chapped Cheeks; Jason Feddy's Shakespeare's Fool; Valentine's Cabarets, and NST alumni in their university a cappella groups visiting from Boston College and UC Berkley. We produce original staged musicals and play readings by locals too: Chris Quilter's MY FUNNY VALENTINE; Bridget English's BELOW "C" LEVEL; Joe Lauderdale's Nationally Acclaimed A FALSE REALITY, and even Rebecca M. Lyles's Book Launch!

So join the family! Become an annual MEMBER or DONOR and support the many wonderful things No Square Theatre creates every year.

FROM THE DIRECTOR:

Thank you all so much for coming to support live theatre and this incredible production of Spamalot!

We are living in a tumultuous time right now, where many days I wake up feeling helpless and full of uncertainty as to what the future holds. I get overwhelmed by baffling and seemingly never-ending news stories of events that are heartbreaking, maddening, and yet somehow so far out of my control. I pride myself on being a relatively positive person, but in today's world, that can be hard sometimes.

Enter Spamalot – Coconuts. A Killer Rabbit. Spam. This show is ridiculous in the best way, and unlike anything else. Spamalot combines just the right amount of hilarity, wit, and heart that only the genius of Monty Python can provide. They remind us to always look on the bright side of life and keep our eyes on the goal, something that we should all remember.

I could not have done this show without my incredible team – I have definitely found my grail in them! Sande, you always know just what to say to make everything okay. Thank you for your unending support and love of this program. Marcus & Danny, thank you for breathing life into this show through your incredible lighting and sound design. Brigitte, thank you for taking on this HUGE costume project! I love that I can trust you 100% to make this show look so fantastic. Kaylie, I am thrilled that you joined the team on this show! You have been my right-hand lady in so many ways, and your calm demeanor has been just what I needed. Kelly, how lucky am I to have found you?! Not only are you such a phenomenal artist, but you have become a dear friend to me. Thank you for the huge amount of time and creativity you put into painting our castle pieces and for collaborating on this project. Susan, you are one of my favorite people I have ever worked with. I am thrilled to be doing yet another show with such a talented musician and friend. In times of uncertainty as a director, I often find myself asking "What would Bree do?" or "What would Joe do?" Bree and Joe, thank you for being my mentors and friends in and out of the theatre. Dad, you are my hero in so many ways. Thank you for taking my set idea and making it even more than I could have imagined. Your love and support means so much to me. Mom, thank you for being my number one cheerleader. I love you and Dad so much! Sammi – sister – I love you so much kitty girl! Thank you for adding that extra sparkle to my life. Joely and Maverick, you make me hopeful for the future. You two are my everything, and I am so thankful that I am able to have you grow up in the world of theatre. Chris, thank you for supporting my passion and for encouraging the kids to join in. I love you more and more each day!

Enjoy the show!

OUR GHOST LIGHT

As a centuries-old practice, a ghost light is turned on whenever a theater would otherwise be dark. Although the ghost light may be a safety precaution, theater tradition holds that it also reflects the beloved spirits of a company who watch over the theatre — and perhaps take a turn on the boards — in our absence.

No Square's ghost light, created by artist Ron Dier, is our tribute to Lloyd Charton, our long-serving Board President. We loved him for his passion, wise counsel, and wicked good humor. The ghost light is turned on by the last person to leave No Square, and turned off just before each show, in memory of a wonderful man and the joy he found in this sweet space.
